

MED 161 Medical Terminology Dual Credit

Your studies will focus on medical language and its use in practical situations. You will be introduced to the structure and function of medical language and the medical terms relating to body systems.

This course will be recognized towards credit in the following program:

- Health Information Management

If admitted to the following programs, the MED 161 course will be recognized as an as an equivalency to the medical terminology course in:

- Combined Lab and X-Ray Technician
- Cytotechnology Diploma
- Medical Laboratory Assistant
- Medical Laboratory Technology
- Medical Radiological Technology
- Pharmacy Technician
- Phlebotomy
- Therapeutic Recreation

The medical terminology skills developed through this course will be useful to students pursuing training for most medical professions.

High School Recognition: Medical Terminology 30L

How to Register: Admissions → Resources → Guide to Registering for Dual Credit

<https://saskpolytech.ca/admissions/resources/dual-credit-register-guide.aspx>

