

February 7, 2024

Dear Chinook families and staff:

Tonight, the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation informed the Ministry of Education that they are suspending the provincewide withdrawal of noon-hour supervision that was scheduled for Thursday, February 8, 2024. The Government-Trustee Bargaining Committee has indicated they have a renewed mandate and invited the Teachers' Bargaining Committee to return to the bargaining table.

For parents and staff, tomorrow (February 8) will be a normal school day, with staff providing noon hour supervision as they normally would.

Thank you for your understanding and for your support of our division and teachers. We will continue to communicate any updates with families and staff. Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Chinook School Division at 306-778-9200 or email info@chinooksd.ca.

Sincerely,
