EXAM RULES

Student Handbook Page 20

- BE ON TIME
 - Please arrive in your exam room 10 minutes before the scheduled start time.
- BE PREPARED
 - Please ensure you have the correct writing tools, erasers, rulers, etc.
 - Hand in all textbooks and books to your classroom teacher and library.
 - Calculators are allowed in select exams. Please check with your teacher if they are allowed.
 - Students are required to remain in the examination room a minimum of one hour and are asked to be quiet in the hallways out of courtesy to other student who are writing exams
- NO COMMUNICATION DEVICES
 - No cell, smart phones, smart watches, etc.
 - Anything that allows connection to the internet, talking, texting, etc. Must be turned off and left at the front of the exam room.
- NO BACKPACKS/BAGS
 - Leave them at home or store in your locker
- NO FOOD/DRINKS
 - Only allowed clear plastic water bottles with no writing on them
- VACATIONS
 - Vacations are not a valid reason to miss final exams.
- ILLNESS/MEDICAL APPOINTMENTS
 - Should you fall ill on the scheduled exam day. A parent must contact Administration to arrange for an alternate writing day.
 - Please try to arrange for all medical appointments to avoid final exams.
 - Should the appointment be unavoidable, parents must contact Administration to arrange for an alternate writing day.

EXAM CONFLICTS

Students anticipating an exam conflict during final exams must complete the Final Exam Reschedule Form in the Main Office. The student, teacher and Administration will work together to reschedule at a time jointly agreed upon.

NOTE: Vacations and medical appointments are not considered exam conflicts. Conflicts arise when two exams of senior level fall on the same exam day. Ex. Math/Science

Every effort should be made to write final exams and conflicts need to be cleared with the teacher and admin. The school can reserve the right to not clear a student depending on the reason.
