OTHER

- This week is National Teen Driver Safety Week, which promotes teen traffic safety awareness and encourages safe driving choices and habits. If you are between the ages of 15 and 19, and want a chance to win one of ten $250 VISA gift cards, go to SGI's website (www.sgi.sk.ca/teendrivers) and enter the contest by October 21. Check the poster in the main hallway for more information.

Teen drivers have higher fatality, injury, and collision rates than any other driving group. Last year, 18 people lost their lives on Saskatchewan roads and 1,082 were injured when a teen driver was behind the wheel.

- LOST & FOUND: a set of keys left in the Chem Lab last week a green/black, Ranlin, insulated lunch bag a black/lime green, insulated, Thermos lunch bag
a black North Face jacket
- Saskatchewan Library Week is this week. Did you know? --

THE SHS LIBRARY HAS 5,051 BOOKS.
